Improving the search system to combat the growing phenomenon of Missing People in Europe!

Consultant in Information Analysis and Research of Missing Persons.

Let's work together to improve investigation processes, raise awareness, and offer training to help bring missing children and adults home!

LOST2 project is funded by the Erasmus+ Programme and gathers nine partners from six EU countries, which will work together until May 2025, to develop an array of results, including a new professional profile / Qualification associated to the missing people research.

Other Results

- 01 Report with the main findings of an European survey focused on LOST2 professional profile / Qualification.
- 02 Preparatory dossier for the formal recognition of the Qualification in the EU countries represented by LOST2 consortium.
- 03 LOST2 Platform, the focal point of a Community of Practice (CoP), where LOST2 Partners, VET Providers and other national and European institutions and associations working with the Missing People phenomenon, can share experiences and network.

Aims

- Analyse, share, enrich and define the Consultant in Information Analysis and Research of Missing Persons Qualification.
- Prepare the required documentation, in line with the European standards, to allow National Qualification Agencies to proceed with the verification, validation and recognition of the Qualification.
- Lay the foundations for a future equivalence of the Qualification in Europe, considering the standards re-quired by recent EU guidelines, to foster a valid certification across the EU.
- Expand employment opportunities of Consultant in Information Analysis and Research of Missing Persons professionals, by guaranteeing the usability of the Qualification and its transferability into all EU countries.
